

Get the Most Out of Your School Readiness Kits

School Readiness Kits are a great way to engage with your families and encourage learning and reading together, ensuring that every child is ready for kindergarten. Here are some opportunities to distribute kits to the families in your community:

- New student enrollment events
- Kindergarten roundups or registrations
- PreK family nights
- School tours
- Family meet and greets
- End of the school year events
- PTA/PTO outreach events
- PreK graduations
- Family conferences and/or home visits
- Beginning of school year and/or back-to-school events
- Winter/summer break events
- School readiness drives

Partner with community literacy advocates and organizations to extend your reach and distribute even more kits.

- Public libraries
- Community centers and organizations
- Faith-based organizations
- Women, infant, and children (WIC) agencies
- Local doctor's offices for three- and four-year-old wellness visits
- Food-service programs such as local food pantries
